

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT'S PRIVACY RIGHTS

The aforementioned Department of Justice (FBI) Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights document is for all individuals undergoing a background investigation.

The FBI requires agencies to provide written notification to all agency personnel and applicants that their fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI.

If you choose not to sign this form, you are not exempt from a national fingerprint-based criminal history check.

Acknowledgement and Acceptance:

I acknowledge that I have read the Noncriminal Justice Applicant's Privacy Rights.

I also acknowledge that I can review the website below to review information regarding the process: <http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks>
