

INTERROGATORY

RE:

Information contained in your background investigation has developed areas of concern that requires further clarification. As these concerns are critical elements in determining your suitability for employment and/or access to classified information, you should address each item cited below and provide any documents requested. Your response will be evaluated in conjunction with the information gathered during your investigation. You are encouraged to read the attachment titled "Instructions for responding to a Letter of Interrogatory".

Suitability Issues: